Term:

12 months from start of service

Scope of Requested Service:

This service is intended primarily for consumers who are leaving the child welfare system early with substantial unresolved school or housing issues. It is not an addition to the current Independent Living continuum of care. The volume of ongoing referrals will be driven by the ongoing satisfaction of the HCJFS Permanency staff, whose objective through this discretionary service is to have consumers emancipated sooner and with less difficulty than otherwise.

Additionally, the program can be used by our homeless emancipated youth.

This service shall have a six-month maximum term per consumer, and thus will not work within the context of one-year leases. However, if the consumer is making sufficient progress in the program and has not obtained housing within the 6 months, their stay may be increased. In-house staff may be providing similar services that are provided through this contract.

Subject to terms and conditions set forth in an awarded contract, the Provider will agree to perform the Transitional Services defined below. The Provider will provide services to young adults between 18 and 21 who have been referred from HCJFS Permanency staff. These young adults will have left HCJFS custody. The Transitional Independent Living program is intended to assist young adults to move away from dependency of child welfare and to promote self sufficiency for these individuals. The Provider is prohibited from using funding from this contract for court ordered referrals.

The Provider's responsibilities under this contract would be as follows:

- 1) Provider shall document and deliver Transitional Independent Living Services (face to face contact) to referred children an average two (2) hours per week. At a minimum, and regardless of consumer participation, housing will be available for each referred consumer up to six months following enrollment of the consumer.
- 2) Provider shall require that their staff document all activities and efforts undertaken to ensure the successful transition of each consumer away from dependence on child welfare.
- 3) Provider shall have a system in place to assure that activities and documentation are completed.
- 4) Provider shall document outreach efforts to engage hard-to-serve clients.
- 5) Provider will make and document efforts to involve family or existing community ties wherever appropriate.
- 6) Provider will assist with application for all benefits to which the consumer may be entitled such as social security, SSI, TANF, Medicaid, child support, etc.
- 7) Provider will assist with educational plans (graduation, GED, college, PEL grants and financial aide, etc.) and with employment plans.
- 8) Provider will submit invoices to HCJFS for Transitional IL Services as described in the awarded Contract. Provider will submit an invoice to HCJFS on a monthly basis to confirm the child's continued presence in the Transitional IL program. At a minimum, each enrolled consumer shall be provided with housing, case management, and other services that the Provider determines necessary to promote effective independence with six months of program enrollment. The provider is eligible to bill HCJFS for enrolled consumers for up to six months per consumer. Unless there is documented dis-enrollment, services (including housing) are to remain available for six months from enrollment date.

- 9) Consumers may voluntarily dis-enroll if stable housing is secured and they provide a written statement that they no longer wish to participate in the Transitional IL program. Consumers may be involuntarily dis-enrolled based on serious, explicit, and documented violation of program rules.

A. Criminal Record Check

Provider shall comply with R.C. Sections 2151.86 and 5153.111. Generally these require that every employee or volunteer of Provider who has contact with a Consumer have an effective criminal record check. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, an employee or volunteer, without an effective criminal record check, may have contact with a Consumer if he/she is accompanied by an employee with an effective criminal record check. As used in this section an "effective criminal record check" is a criminal record check performed by the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, done in compliance with ORC 2151.86, which demonstrates that the employee or volunteer has not been convicted of any offense listed in R.C. Section 2151.86(C).
